

One, two, three

Henry Purcell (1659-1695)

One, two, three, our number is sum, we sum, we sum up all de-lights, de-lights in I will not count, I will not count, I will not count the care times right. Let's sing and cheer our hearts to-night. We one, in sweet de-lights of time and tune, I will not count, bring. I'll on-ly, I'll on-ly count my time to sing.

Jerusalem

Je - ru - sa - lem, O that thou had'st known in these thy days the things that be - long un - to thy peace. But now they are hid - den from thine eyes, are hid - den from thine eyes.
